Is your Practice Ready for an Emergency? A Primer on Wills and POAs

As psychotherapists, who hasn't had fearful moments, wondering what will happen to our practice and clients if we are unexpectedly incapacitated or die. As hard as this is to contemplate, it's essential for us to be prepared, both personally and professionally.

Jana Tsang, lawyer, will help us understand options and responsibility to create a robust safety net that can catch us and our clients.

Included in this webinar:

- Reasons why you need a Personal & Professional Will
- Correcting common misconceptions regarding estate entitlements
- Considerations for your practice and personal estate planning.
